

COMPANY BOARD LEVEL COMMITMENT

01

STEVE JOHNSON
CEO - ELECTRICITY NORTH WEST

“It is a core value of Electricity North West that health and safety will always be the first consideration of any business decision we make.

We will develop and promote a culture of continuous improvement in regard to health and safety”.

02

DEREK PARKIN

MD – E.ON BUSINESS SERVICES

“Powering Improvement commitments have made a real, lasting difference to the health of our employees and that difference will be positive for each individual and in turn the business. For example our health interventions have:

- saved £11.8 million
- taken 20 days off the average absence due to MSDs
- reduced by 25% the days lost due to mental ill health.

We do not see Powering Improvement as a one off , but have embedded the principles within our business to build a healthier future”.

03 STEVE HOLLIDAY CEO – NATIONAL GRID

nationalgrid

“At National Grid the health and wellbeing of our people is central to the performance of the business”

04

DOUG WILSON
UK DIRECTOR H&S - SCOTTISH POWER

“The health safety and welfare of our employees, contractors and customers is of paramount importance to Scottish Power. Aligning our health and safety strategy with Powering Improvement makes sense and has helped us review and revisit the controls and precautions we already have in place.”

05

IAN MARCHANT
CEO - SSE

“At SSE the health and wellbeing of our people promotes employee engagement and reinforces our distinctive culture which emphasises safety, innovation and teamwork”.

06 BASIL SCARSELLA
CEO - UK POWER NETWORKS

“Success in managing the health and wellbeing of our people is core to achieving our business vision to become an organisation which is an employer of choice”.

07

ROBERT SYMONS CEO – WESTERN POWER DISTRIBUTION

WESTERN POWER DISTRIBUTION
Serving the Midlands, South West and Wales

POWERING IMPROVEMENT

“There is no greater priority at WPD than the health and safety of our staff”